

AOZ Studio Beta - Bug #168

If you open a PDF document in the VSCode IDE, after closing, you can't re-open it from the "OPEN EDITORS" list.

Description

Attempting to open a PDF from the OPEN EDITORS list after closing and re-opening Visual Studio Code will result in the following error:

```
An error occurred while restoring view:pdf.preview
```

Instead, you'll need to close the PDF in the OPEN EDITORS list, then re-locate the original document, and re-open it. The reason you'll want to close the one already in the OPEN EDITORS list is because if you don't, you'll have 2 seemingly identical items in that list, one of them still won't work.

This is no longer relevant, since we do not use Visual Studio Code any more.
